Because of the overwhelming success, positive feedback, & good fruit borne of the first (exploratory) cohort in the Diocese of Sacramento, Bishop Soto has enthusiastically endorsed full-scale implementation of a second cohort, which begins in the Fall. Bishop is encouraging parishioners from every parish in the diocese to participate in this unique and effective formation. So sign up, and encourage your friends to do so!

“Leaven for the World”

Lay people are called by God to exercise their role in ordinary circumstances, and to work as leaven for the sanctification of the world from within (LG 31). The Lay Mission Project seeks to enliven lay people, to help them appreciate the relevancy and richness of the faith, and enable them, in the ordinary circumstances of daily life, to live out their role in the Church’s mission.

Visit LAYMISSION.NET for more information as well as a free course on spiritual practices for ordinary Christians. These core practices are fundamental to the formation, and offer a hands-on look at the online learning environment.

Who?

This formation process is geared toward lay (ordinary) Catholics who seek to deepen their understanding of the faith, and to become a part of the Church’s mission to the world in the ordinary circumstances of daily life. Whether a young adult, middle aged, or elderly, single or married, professional, retired, or a homemaker, this formation could be perfect for you.

What?

The Lay Mission Project seeks to animate the lay apostolate in the Church by preparing laypeople for the sake of their fundamental calling: to transform secular society through living the faith in all aspects of life – in the family, socially, in one’s occupation, etc. This is accomplished through a formation process that involves prayer, retreats, personal and communal reflection, online education, in-person workshops, and together growing local communities of disciples of our Lord.
